A black and white photograph of several vintage typewriters arranged on a surface. The typewriters are of various models and colors, including dark and light finishes. Some have brand names visible, such as 'Corona', 'Remington', and 'Olympia'. A large, semi-transparent red rectangle with the word 'OPTIONS' in white capital letters is centered over the image.

What is Ulrichsweb?

Ulrichsweb is an easy to search source of detailed information on more than 300,000 periodicals (also called serials) of all types: academic and scholarly journals, e-journals, peer-reviewed titles, popular magazines, newspapers, newsletters, and more.

What does it include?

Ulrichsweb covers more than 900 subject areas. Ulrich's records provide data points such as ISSN, publisher, language, subject, abstracting & indexing coverage, full-text database coverage, tables of contents, and reviews written by librarians.

What are the linking options?

If your organization has enabled linking options, you can also use Ulrichsweb to explore your library's catalog or other locations where your library subscribes to serials resources.

Open Choice: Your research. Your choice.

Our Open Choice program allows authors to publish open access in the majority of Springer's subscription-based journals.

When you choose Open Choice, benefits for you and your readers include:

- High visibility, as all articles are made freely available online for everyone, immediately upon publication
- Easy compliance with open access mandates, as all articles are CC BY licensed
- Reuse and immediate deposit of final article in any repository
- Authors retain the copyright to their work
- Automatic export triggered to PubMed Central/Europe PubMed Central (PMC)*

Publication Fees

To provide Open Access, PLOS uses a business model to offset the costs of including those of peer review management, journal production and hosting and archiving – by charging a publication fee to the author, institutions or funders for each article published. Publication fees are payable for articles upon acceptance.

A photograph of a room filled with numerous old, dusty typewriters. The machines are arranged on a wooden surface, possibly a desk or a shelf, and are heavily covered in dust and debris. The room appears to be in a state of disrepair, with peeling paint on the walls and a window in the background. The overall atmosphere is one of neglect and abandonment.

LIST OF STANDALONE JOURNALS

Potential, possible, or probable predatory scholarly open-access journals

This is a list of questionable, scholarly open-access journals. We recommend that scholars read the available reviews, assessments and descriptions provided here, and then decide for themselves whether they want to submit articles, serve as editors or on editorial boards. The criteria for determining predatory journals are here.

We hope that tenure and promotion committees can also decide for themselves how importantly or not to rate articles published in these journals in the context of their own institutional standards and/or geo-cultural locus. We emphasize that journals change in their business and editorial practices over time. This list is kept up-to-date to the best extent possible but may not reflect sudden, unreported, or unknown enhancements
