Deposit Student Work

Works by MacEwan University students are welcome with a faculty member's approval.

Suitable works include exceptional and unique efforts such as:

- Undergraduate theses, captone projects, research reports, & independant studies
- Conference poster & presentation files
- Podcasts & digital stories
- Artistic works including music recordings, design projects, creative writing, & digital copies of art pieces

Following deposit, it typically takes 2-3 weeks for a work to be posted to RO@M. Both the student and faculty member approving the posting will receive an email confirmation with a link to the work once it has been posted.

Step 6: Share Your Work

Sometimes you'll be asked to share your work in a medium other than a paper (a group presentation for example) and understanding how to format your research to suit the medium is important. If you're looking to publish or share your work, there are also some additional things you'll want to investigate and keep in mind.
